

DOINGS OF THE WORLD BOILED DOWN

Boise, Idaho.—With bullet in his brain accidentally fired by 5-year-old son of Joseph Powell, L. A. Martin, Kuna Savings Bank, probably fatally wounded.

Washington. — Interstate Commerce Commission announced proprietors of union railroad ticket offices are not bona fide employes of railroad and not entitled to ride on passes.

Jersey City, N. J.—Fire on Fifth floor of plant of Lorillard Tobacco Co. did $1,000 damage.

Sassari, Island of Sardinia, Italy.—Police claim to have evidence of murder in death of Miss Eileen Gilles, young woman writer of Philadelphia, found shot to death in her cottage here.

Mars, Pa.—One man killed, three others injured when gas in kiln at brickyard exploded.

Belfast.—7,000 men of East Belfast regiment of Ulster volunteers passed in review before Sir Edward Carson.

Kansas City.—Frank Gee, prominent real estate dealers, Lawrence, Kas., pleaded guilty to indictments charging him with using cancelled stamps for postage. Fined $500.

Pontiac, Ill.—Ex-Judge Fred G. White, attorney and for many years prominent in Modern Woodmen circles, indicted on charge of forgery.

Detroit.—Peter Kiefer, Lima, O., reported theft of pocketbook containing $770.

Atlanta, Ga.—Masked bandit held up score of passengers on Western & Atlantic passenger train, engaged in pistol duel with Deputy Sheriff Heard and escaped with $250 in cash and jewels.

San Francisco.—$1,500 gold plate presented to Pres. McKinley when battleship Ohio was launched brought only $825 at auction of McKinley relics.

San Francisco.—Steam schooner Polaris licensed to have sunk with crew of 15 men.

Washington.—Unconfirmed report that Gen. Pascual Orozco of Mexican federal army was killed at Ciatro Cienegas, Mexico, transmitted to war department.

Denver.—Dr. Gustave Feil, prominent physician, suicided. Melancholia.

St. Louis.—Mistaking mercury tablets for headache medicine, Mrs. Jessie Sharpe, Hillsboro, Ill., visiting relatives, is seriously ill.

Davenport, Ia.—Wm. Martens, employe of Prestolite Co., probably fatally burned when oil separators burst into flame.

Oshkosh, Wis.—Jenney Pierce killed when she jumped from third story of Lake Side Hospital.

New York.—Business agent Int'l Ladies' Garment Workers' Union says present styles for women are so simple that ladies' garment workers have been thrown out of employment.

Bronson, Tex.—Fire destroyed entire block of business buildings. $100,000 loss.

Madison, Wis.—As compensation for loss of wages from June 12 to Aug. 15, due to injuries received from blow on chest, industrial commission ordered Central Coal Co. to pay Peter Rivetto, employe, $65.

Washington.—Government ownership of railroads sought in resolution introduced by Rep. Crosser of Ohio.

New York.—Dr. Arrigo Giannone, an Italian commissioner of labor immigration, aboard North German Lloyd liner Berlin, reported murdered.

St. Paul.—"J. C. R." man of mystery located in Oak Park Infirmary, will not be returned to Minnesota. Claim he is not resident of state.

Leavenworth, Kas.—Private Melvin Sheed of 15th Cavalry, a deserter, surrendered.

Madison, Wis.—Second marriage license granted in Dane county under eugenics law was taken out by Ken-